

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME QUARANTINE AND ISOLATION COMPACT

As a University of Notre Dame student, by residing in quarantine and/or isolation residential accommodations, I acknowledge and agree to the following code of conduct during my time residing in quarantine and/or isolation residential accommodations:

- I will follow all of the provisions of du Lac pertaining to residential living at the University.
- I will follow all health and safety policies issued by the University or local, state, or federal governmental authorities relating to quarantine and/or isolation residential accommodations.
- I will be responsible for any and all property (real and personal) damage that occurs at my quarantine or isolation residential accommodation during my stay at the quarantine or isolation residential accommodation.
- I shall not: (i) use any portion of the quarantine or isolation residential accommodation in violation of any law, rule, regulation, code, or ordinance; (ii) make, or permit to be made, any alterations to the quarantine or isolation residential accommodation; and (iii) permit anyone other than University permitted individuals to enter my quarantine or isolation residential accommodation.
- I shall not: (i) leave my designated quarantine or isolation residential accommodation prior to the expiration of the applicable quarantine or isolation period except in the event of an emergency, keeping all exterior doors and windows to my residential accommodation closed; (ii) use any common areas of the quarantine or isolation residential facility; and (iii) use any of the community amenities available to other residents at the residential accommodation facility, including, but not limited to, if applicable, the swimming pool, fitness center, parking garages, game room, club room, conference center, study areas or rooftop terrace.

HERE

